This year the boys' X-Country team, under the direction of Coach George Rose, had a great season. Senior Captain Andrew Holmes was Carver's top performer. Andrew set a new Carver High course record and was named to the South Shore League All-Star Team.

The girls' X-Country team posted a solid 5-1 record, placing them second in the South Shore League. Junior, Captain Linda Farnham, junior, Captain Kerri Luca and eighth grader, Heather Bain led the team in an outstanding year. Linda and Heather also made the South Shore League All-Star Team.

Kerry Leary, capt.

Suzanne Sullivan, capt.

Laura Crowell

Six seniors backboned this years field hockey team that finished 6-4 under Varsity coach Ann Motyka.

Returning South Shore League All Star goalie Kerry Leary had another outstanding year earning her second SSL All Star berth as well as a nomination for the Boston Globe All-Scholastic team and the Brockton Enterprise All-Scholastic team. Johanna MacIver, a junior back, earned an All-Star berth as well. Other seniors included forwards Suzanne Sullivan, and Laura Crowell. Defensive seniors were Jen Janak, Leah Wohlander, and Jeanne Boucher.

The scoring was spread out among many Crusaders with Alex Wildes leading the way. Senior Laura Crowell, junior Jenn Connolly, and sophomore Brie Wildes were also multiple goal scorers.

Highlights of the season were a 3-0 victory over Plymouth South and a 4-1 victory over Middleboro.

The Junior Varsity, under 3rd year coach Renee Grennell, finished with its best record ever; 10 wins, 4 losses, and 4 ties.

Coach Ann Motyka

After another hard fought season on the grid iron, the Carver Crusaders Football team boasts another good season, with a record of 5-5. The highlight of the year was Carver's first win at the Homecoming Game. Head Coach Dennis Green, along with assistant coaches Wayne Demeo and newcomer Mike Fraccalossi, turn heads in a tight South Shore League.

Although the record didn't show it, the gymnastics team had a successful season this year with great performances from the entire team. The close friendships found amongst the team helped express the tremendous dedication and determination of all the gymnasts. Eighth graders Katie LeGrand and Cherylann Crowley competed well as all-arounds. Katie placed fourth, a personal best, in the league meet held annually at CHS. Captains, sophomore Meghan Costa and junior Robin Drysdale also performed well. Both competed on the beam, floor, and vault. also competing on the floor, senior Danielle Soule, freshman Kerri Huskins, and eighth grader Kristin Yule, showed great effort and exciting performances. Having a great season this year, and many more to come, seventh grader Jessica Farrell competed on the bars, beam, and vault. Competing on the beam, sophomore Deirdre McLaughlin showed outstanding dedication after suffering an injury early in the season. We wish you all the best of luck next year!

The Lady Crusaders, coached by head coach, Wally Furtado, improved their 5-15 record last season to an 8-12 record this season. Two "one" point losses denied the Lady Crusaders an opportunity at earning an MIAA tournament spot.

The Lady Crusaders were again led by Senior Captain Kate Murphy with a league leading 19 points per game scoring average. She was also second in team rebounding. Kate was also appointed South Shore League Player of the Year with total career points reaching 1,672. Senior Point Guard Julie Kinan had a great all around year as the floor leader and Senior Forward Suzanne Sinkey showed tremendous improvement during the course of this season after overcoming a severe knee injury last year. Junior Eran Coyne was again immense on the boards and a strong defender. Shooting Guard, Jill Emond was the second leading scorer.

The Lady Crusaders outlook for next season remains optimistic. However, losing high scoring forward Kate Murphy and point guard Julie Kinan will present problems. Center Eran Coyne and guard Jill Emond will lead the Lady Crusaders next year. Thus, improved shooting and rebounding will allow the Lady Crusaders to be very competitive next season.

The wrestling team had another outstanding season with a record of 18-6. The team experienced many exciting successes. They came in first at the Marshfield Tournament for the fourth consecutive time, and also won the Needham Tournament. They took the South Shore League Championship for the fifth time, too. During the South Sectionals it was close, but Carver came in second to Foxboro, however the wrestlers came back at the States to win it and make it into the record books for three consecutive State Championships.

THE YEARBOOK DEDICATION

The members of the 1995 yearbook staff have decided to dedicate this year's book to the children of the future; for the children are tomorrow's hope. If they are to succeed in making the world a better place, we must help them.

As young adults we have seen enormous changes take place in our world. The AIDS epidemic will always be a haunting reminder to us all that human life is very fragile. And most recently, the Oklahoma Bombing shows us all that even in today's world, there are still those who do not cherish life. We witnessed the end of Communism in the USSR, the tearing down of the Berlin Wall, and the end of apartheid in South Africa. These are things our parents thought would never happen, and they remind us that there is always hope that people will learn to live together in a peaceful coexistence. The environment that we live in and the pollution that surrounds us have made us even more aware that we have to take better care of our world for our children.

Now is the time for us all to pull together to make our world a better place for our children tomorrow. We must stand together to help clean up our environment so that our children and their children will be able to live in our homeland. For tomorrow, our children will be the ones standing on this stage, saying their goodbyes, and moving on with their lives.

Class Poem

"All Through School"

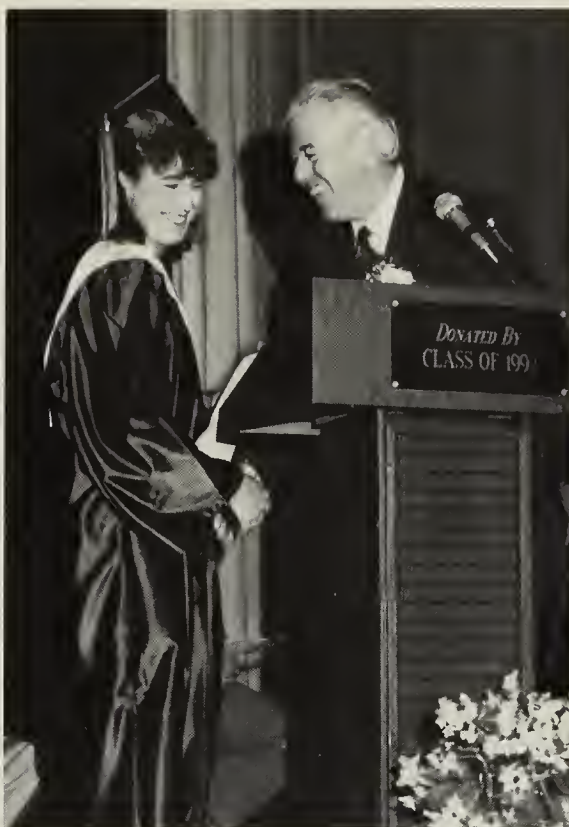

by

Anne Holzman and Leah Wohlander

All through school we have been together.
The friendships we have made
will last forever.
Though the time has come for us to move on,
We will miss everyone
when we are gone.

From sports teams to academics
we have all shed our light
And as we go on to college
we promise to write.
We will treasure the memories
that we have shared,
And hope that for the future
we are fully prepared.

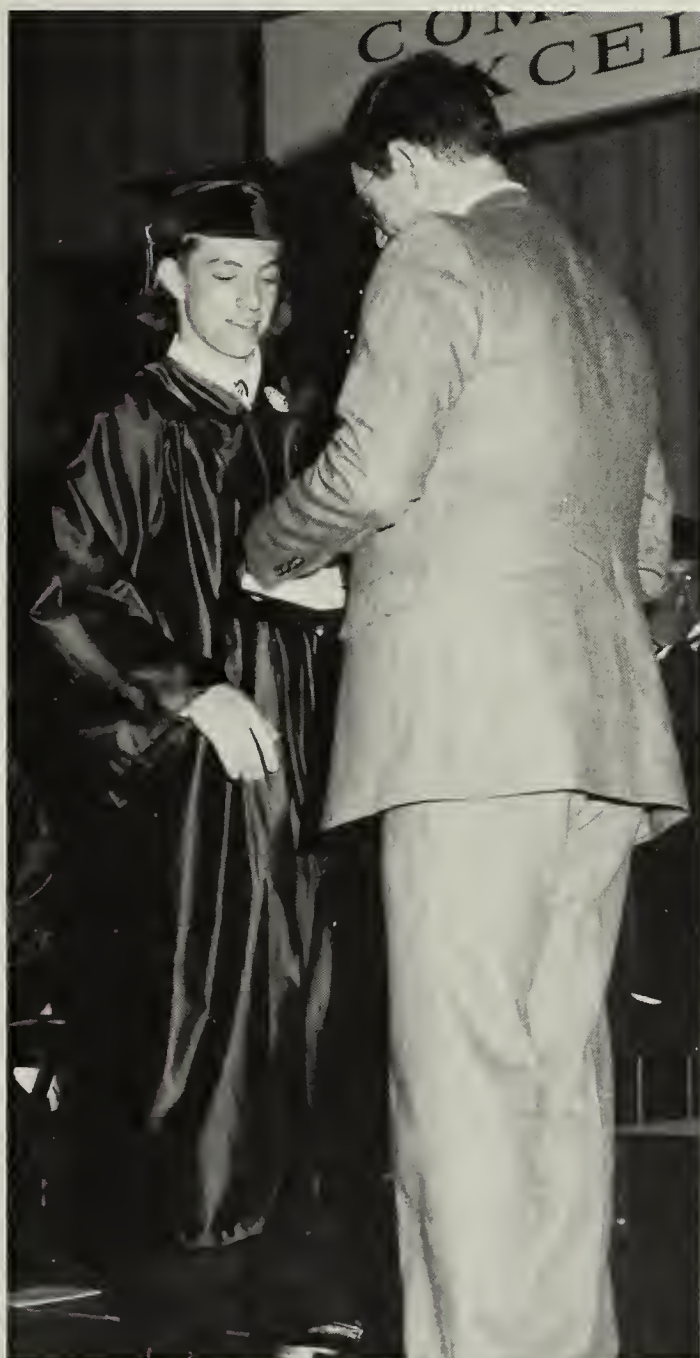

As we stop to say our goodbyes
And wipe the tears out of our eyes,
We realize that it is time to go
And hope in the future that you will know,
We wish you good luck in all that you do
And we will truly miss each one of you!

Michael Daly Age 2½

Although you've grown and become an adult, your Mom and Dad will always remember you in this way.
We hope the dreams of this young boy all come true!

Suzanne,
You started out holding it upside down,
And that phone in your hand caused many a frown;
But from the beginning, you've kept us all grinning,
With all your achievements, your loving and giving;
We know you'll succeed in all that you do,
And hope that the phone calls will now come FROM you.
Congratulations —We Love You . . . Mom, Dad, Sharon and

Jennifer,

Our wish for you is to always try your hardest in all you pursue and — you will succeed.

Also look at the good in all people and good people will surround you.

Happiness should always be with you for you've always made us very happy.

Congratulations

Dear Vanessa,

Eighteen years ago the Lord blessed us with the birth of a beautiful daughter. Through the years we had the pleasure of watching you mature. We are very proud of you and look forward to celebrating with you as your life continues to expand before you.

We Love You,

Dad, Mom, Samantha, Clarissa, Daniel Michael, Amanda, Matthew, Thomas, Erick, Angelica and Brianna

Dear Megan,

To my beautiful little girl, "Strong willed and determined," is how the doctor described you on the day you were born, and you have been just that. You have fought me every step of the way, but you always did things your own way with little compromise. You have definitely been a challenge to bring up, but you have also been a joy. Let your determination guide you through life and you'll succeed at whatever you do. What will I do with all my free time in the fall with no soccer games to go to. Just remember I love you Meg.

Love,

Mom, Maureen, Jimmy & Mattie

Dear Matt,

Here it is, 1995! Your Dad and I are preparing to send our first born out into the world, and as we do so, there are so many words to be said; words that do little to convey our feelings at this moment. Raising a child requires a great deal of patience, understanding and compassion. We wish these attributes to live in you always. You have brought so much joy and love into our lives. We wish you a lifetime of love and joy. You have helped us to look at the world through different eyes and appreciate what we see. Now that world is at your feet. Go, do, see, feel; Your time has come.

Lisa,

Where did all the years go! The day is really here and we are so proud of the beautiful person you have become, inside as well as outside.

This is the beginning of a new chapter in your life. We know you will excel in everything you do!

You have always made us smile with pride. Treasure these past years and keep them close.

We know your new ventures will be just as promising!

We love you always,
Mom, Dad, Ma, Papa, Jim,
Shon,
Casey & Et.

From a precious baby in my arms to the beautiful woman in my heart,
I have loved you from the start.
It seems that only yesterday you asked for me to pick you up and give a kiss,
And now I must let you go to meet the world, to fulfill your dreams and you I will greatly miss.
I know you were never mine to keep,
But time has gone so quickly by it makes me so want to weep.
You have been my inspiration, my strength, my hope and joy,
These treasured gifts are buried in my soul.
Take my love, my pride, my faith in you,
And show the world something wonderful and new.
If you forget the joy and laughter or lose sight of the truth,
Remember the days of childhood and youth,
With two very special friends, Tara and Jamie, and they will see you through.
And may the three of you always remember you have a home to come to.
Jacqui, I will always be here for you and though we may seem to be heading down different paths we will always be on the same road because our love will always keep us together. I am so very proud of you, my daughter.

Love,
Mom

Sisters by Heart

*We shared so much laughter
 ~ shared so many tears ~
 We've a spiritual kinship that grows stronger each year.
 We're not sisters by birth
 but we knew from the start
 God put us together
 to be sisters by heart.*

CONGRATULATIONS MICHELLE!

You are a very special daughter and a very special sister.

ALL OUR LOVE, Mom, Dad,
 Paul, Pat, and Brendan

Good Luck, Class of '95
 The Walsh's

Michaela,

Congratulations on your graduation day.
 But still, no matter how much time goes by you will always be our baby girl.

Love,
 Mom and Dad

Leah,

We are so proud of you. Move onward with the confidence that you can accomplish whatever goals you choose.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Jeanne,

Congratulations and good luck!!

We love you,
Dad, Mom, Liz, Julie, & Jeff

Stacey,

The time has been so short since you first entered our lives, and now you are embarking on a new journey of your own. We hope you know that you have brought a very special joy to our lives and to the lives of many others. We are proud of you and your many accomplishments so far, yet these are only the beginning. With your love for life, you will succeed in everything you do. As you take the next step towards your future, we want you to know that no matter where life leads you, we will always be right here for you.

All our love,
Mum, Dad, and Skippy

Kevin,

Your determination to Succeed
and respect for others
has made us so Proud of You

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Amy

Pat,
Keep going
for the gold.
We're very proud of you.

Love,
Dad & Mom

Tara,
We love you and we are very proud of you. We know you will succeed in everything you do.

Love, Mom, Dad, Rosie, Marisa

Kelly,
Yesterday, you ran to the bus with your Smurf lunch box.
Yesterday, you discovered Kelly's Island. Yesterday, you were the only girl in fifth grade who didn't have her ears pierced.
Yesterday, you borrowed a racket and tried out for the tennis team. Yesterday, you learned to drive. Today you flew a plane.
Tomorrow you will leave for college. Yesterday didn't last long enough and tomorrow is coming too soon.

We love you,
Mom, Dad,
Matt, and Erin

"It is not the critic who counts, not the one who points out where the strong person stumbled, or the doer of the deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the person who is actually in the arena, who strives valiantly, who comes through again and again, who knows the great triumph, and if he fails at least fails while daring. So that he will never take company with those pathetic souls who exist in the gray twilight that knows neither victory nor defeat. Strike your dreams."

I would like to congratulate the Class of 1995 for its many contributions to Carver High School. Your class has been a role model for other classes in terms of leadership and class participation. You have been a very special group of students from the day you entered Carver High.

I have observed that the 1994-95 school year has been a great challenge for many members of the senior class. Many of you have experienced personal and educational challenges unlike your prior five years. You have, however, weathered the storm and you are now better prepared to meet the issues that await you after graduation.

I would end my comments by wishing each member of the class success and happiness in the future, whether that future includes immediate entry into the work-force, furthering your formal education, or entry into the military. Hopefully, we have prepared you well for whatever course you choose.
